FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THREE LEGENDARY BASSISTS, ONE EXTRAORDINARY TOUR

Stu Hamm's bass version of the highly successful G3 features Billy Sheehan, Jeff Berlin, and himself. Each member presents the expertise and brilliance that made them all household names to every serious bassist and fan of great musicianship the world over. Between these three bassists they possess accolades that are almost innumerable, including Best Rock Bass Player 7 times in Guitar Player, #1 Bassist awards in readers' polls in Germany, Japan, Korea, Italy, and many other countries.

Stu Hamm (Joe Satriani, Steve Vai, G3)

- Best Jazz Bassist (three years in a row) and Best Rock Bassist (two years in a row) in Guitar Player magazine.
- Hamm is one of Fender's premier artists/clinicians, and his Hot Licks instruction video Slap Pop & Tap continues to be one of the best selling bass videos on the market

Billy Sheehan (Steve Vai [current], G3 [Current], Mr. Big [current], David Lee Roth, Talas)

- Best Rock Bass Player 5 times in Guitar Player an honor which placed him in their "Gallery of Greats" (alongside Jimi Hendrix, Paul McCartney, Geddy Lee and Eddie Van, etc.)
- On January 27, 1999 Billy's handprints and signature were preserved in cement on the Hollywood Rockwalk at Guitar Center
- In Japan, Billy has won the prestigious "Player Magazine" (Japan's #1 Music mag) Readers Poll for Best Bass Player an unprecedented 14 consecutive times

Jeff Berlin (Billy Cobham, John McLaughlin, Jermaine Jackson, Isaac Hayes, Bill Bruford, Yes, Allan Holdsworth, Toots Thielemans, Larry Coryell, Arturo Sandoval, Michael and Randy Brecker, & Mike Stern)

- Founder of the Players School of Music in Clearwater, Florida
- Featured in Bass Player Magazine, Downbeat, Musician, International, Chitarre
- Has appeared on many television and radio shows worldwide
- New CD Lumpy Jazz
